

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH
VIJAY KUMAR VERMA (PMI Fellow, PMP, M.B.A., P.Eng.)

TRIUMF Researcher Emeritus
TRIUMF, 4004 Wesbrook Mall, Vancouver, BC, Canada, V6T 2A3
Tel: (604) 738-1769, Email: VKVerma49@Gmail.com

Vijay K. Verma is an internationally-renowned speaker and an author. He has authored a three-volume series on the Human Aspects of Project Management published by the Project Management Institute (PMI), which include – "Organizing Projects for Success", "Human Resource Skills for the Project Manager", and "Managing the Project Team". Mr. Verma received the 2009 PMI Fellow Award (one of the highest and most prestigious award), 1999 PMI David I. Cleland Project Management Literature Award (for his book "Managing the Project Team"), and the 1999 PMI Distinguished Contribution Award for sustained and significant contributions to the project management profession.

Mr. Verma has given numerous keynote presentations at various conferences. He has authored and presented many papers at national and international conferences on the Human Aspects of Project Management and Managing Cross-Cultural Teams. He has presented several workshops on project management in the U.S., Canada, Europe, Australia, South Africa, China, and India with participants from a wide range of industries. His presentations have been attended by many professionals working in the area of Project Management and have helped enhance their skills and confidence in managing projects effectively.

Mr. Verma is currently a Researcher Emeritus and has worked for over 35 years in the area of Project Management at TRIUMF (TRI University Meson Facility). Here he has provided project management services for projects varying in size, complexity, and diversity. Mr. Verma has served as the President of the West Coast, BC Chapter (1988-1989) and as V.P. of Programmes for the Project Management Institute (PMI), West Coast BC Chapter (1986-1988). He is a professional engineer and holds an M.Sc. in Electrical Engineering from DalTech, Halifax and an MBA from University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada. He lives in Vancouver, BC, Canada, with his wife, three children, and four grandchildren.