

Graduate Pathways to Success and Centre for Student Involvement and Careers present: How to own the 1st and Final Interviews to Secure your Dream Job!

March 23rd, 1:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Thea Koerner House, 6371 Crescent Road, Point Grey Campus

Building upon his popular "Getting the Interview- How to Make Your Application Stand Out" workshop, Matthew will provide you with his top tips for excelling in your next interview. Matthew will be joined by an expert panel, who will add their advice on what to do, and what not to do, to secure you dream job!

Facilitator: Matthew Heiydt is the Centre for Student Involvement & Careers Recruiter in Residence. Over the past 8 years, Matthew Heiydt has been dedicated to helping companies hire and retain quality and qualified people. From a numbers perspective - Matthew has managed 1,000 + permanent recruits, interviewed 2,000 + candidates, and worked with over 300 + companies in recruitment and on-boarding initiatives.

When the discussion revolves around Hiring, On-boarding, and general People Planning, Matthew is someone you should be talking to.

Matthew has worked in private industry, held multiple management positions, and has acted as a career advisor within education. He has been a public speaker on topics such as "Recruitment Best Practices", "How to work with a Recruiter", and his favourite topic "Generations in the Work Place". Matthew is currently President of BackStretch Consulting Group <http://www.backstretch.biz/>. BackStretch is a new recruitment alternative that delivers quality and time savings at a justifiable price point for the long term growth of Canadian companies.
