

ROADMAP TO CAREERS IN RESEARCH, ACADEMIA, AND THE PRIVATE SECTOR

Networking Event

TRIUMF Science Week 2022
Thursday, July 21, 15:45 - 16:45

Curious about how to make the most out of grad school and the early stages of your academic career? Join us for a panel discussion with experts across disciplines and learn from their experiences.

Kathryn Hayashi
TRIUMF Innovations

Two truths and a lie:

- 1. I organized an art support camp at Burning Man
- 2. I used to work in a funeral home as an Assistant Emblamer
- 3. I used to be Sarah McLachlan's accountant

Thomas Kostelnik
Fusion Pharmaceuticals Inc.

Two truths and a lie:

- 1. If science didn't work out I would have gone to culinary school
- 2. I had a harder time transitioning into graduate school than I did transitioning out
- 3. I miss writing papers for publication

Esther Schirmmacher
TRIUMF

Two truths and a lie:

- 1. When I was younger my dream was to be a pathologist
- 2. I spent 6 months in a monastery
- 3. I can juggle

Graeme Luke
McMaster University

Two truths and a lie:

- 1. Father and brother also have PhD's in Physics
- 2. Best summer job – gold exploration in Northern B.C. and Yukon (except for the bears)
- 3. Always wanted to be professor of physics.